IAS 27 Separate Financial Statements

SCOPE

When an entity elects (or is required by local regulations) to present separate financial statements, IAS 27 applies in accounting for investments in:
- Subsidiaries
- Joint ventures
- Associates.

IAS 27 does not mandate which entities produce separate financial statements.

DEFINITIONS

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Separate financial statements</th>
<th>Consolidated financial statements</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Financial statements presented by a parent (i.e. an investor with control of a subsidiary) or an investor with joint control of; or significant influence over an investee, in which the investments are accounted for at cost, at fair value, or using the equity method.</td>
<td>The financial statements of a group in which the assets, liabilities, equity, income, expenses, and cash flows, of the parent and its subsidiaries are presented as a single economic entity.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

For definitions of: associate; control of an investee; group; joint control; joint venture; joint venturer; parent; significant influence; and subsidiary please refer to the below standards:
- IFRS 10 Consolidated Financial Statements
- IFRS 11 Joint Arrangements
- IAS 28 Investments in Associates and Joint Ventures.

SEPARATE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

- Separate financial statements can, but are not required to be presented in addition to consolidated financial statements or, where an entity does not have subsidiaries, individual financial statements in which investments in associates and joint ventures are accounted for using the equity method. Separate financial statements do not need to be attached to, or accompany, those consolidated or individual financial statements.
- Investments are accounted for: (i) At cost; (ii) in accordance with IFRS 9 Financial Instruments; or (iii) using the equity method in accordance with IAS 28.
- An entity that is exempt in accordance with IFRS 10.4(a) from consolidation or IAS 28.17 (as amended in 2011) from applying the equity method may present separate financial statements as its only financial statements.

PREPARATION OF SEPARATE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

DISCLOSURE

An entity is required to apply all applicable IFRSs when providing disclosures in its separate financial statements.

When a parent qualifies and elects not to prepare consolidated financial statements (IFRS 10 paragraph 4(a)) and instead prepares separate financial statements, it is required to disclose:
- That the financial statements are separate financial statements.
- That the paragraph 4(a) exemption has been used.
- The name, principal place of business, address, and country of incorporation, of the entity whose investments are accounted for using the equity method.
- A list of significant investments in subsidiaries, joint ventures and associates, including:
  - The name of those investees
  - The investees principal place of business and country of incorporation
  - The proportion of the ownership interest and its proportion of the voting rights held in those investees.
- A description of the method used to account for the investments listed under the previous bullet point.

When a parent (other than a parent using the consolidation exemption) or an investor with joint control of, or significant influence over, an investee prepares separate financial statements, it is required to disclose:
- That the financial statements are separate financial statements.
- The reasons why the separate financial statements are prepared if not required by law.
- A list of significant investments in subsidiaries, joint ventures and associates, including:
  - The name of those investees
  - The investees principal place of business and country of incorporation
  - The proportion of the ownership interest and the proportion of voting rights held in those investees.
- A description of the method used to account for the investments listed.
- The financial statements prepared in accordance with IFRS 10, IFRS 11, or IAS 28 to which they relate.
